A young army or agents of the Department of Justice, the tity of police, sheriffs, marshalls and many private eitizens are, they call, "down to business," trying to rid the country of Reds.—Radicals.

The charge against these undesirablrs is that they preach docsecutary to the laws of this land and urge upon their disciplers a not to overthrow this form of government and set up a Russian of government.

trainer contrary to the laws of this land and urge upon their disciplra its unite to overthrow this form of government and set up a Russian form of government.

We cannot consistently say anything to the contrary, because we are firm in our advoracy of law and order: But we do think that this army of protectors for the flag and American institutions, should look a little closer for Reits, defamers and agitators. Not lang ago, a than, an American, stood in the United States Sengte and admentioned authorities of the law. To allow him to make such remarks with impority is a sad admission, that this government, it weak and cowardly managed.

If the Attorney General of the Linied States with his army of assistants really mean hussness, why don't they attack this other form of lawlessness which is sweeping the country until there is barely any section immuned from its activities?

Altorney Genesal-Chalmer is now complaining that we have not sufficient laws to deal with the Valued States than there are read to the cannot have been allowed to express the man who says he doesn't like the [practises of the government, if we need more laws to cutth the radicals—what about lynchers!

There are now lynchers in the Chrief States what about lynchers!

There are now lynchers in the Chrief States than there are read allow to stop lynchers.

Retermine, to make and enforce laws for the benefit of the factored/class, in chandrating a democratic form of government, we are out footing outselves.

Common sense would teach us that a few radicals can do a very little in overthrowing this government, but the hundred thousand Spirchers and defiers of law and order regardless to who the offenders are We would have a wholesme effect hipon the enemies of this government to his premate the sum of the country as long as the officers fall to do their duty.
